Why choose a Catholic School?

Catholic schools not only offer a quality academic program but also teach students to love Christ and His Church. At a Catholic School students speak freely about their faith and learn about Christ's love for them.

Why chose St. Marianne?

St. Marianne has a long tradition of providing a quality Catholic education in Pico Rivera since 1953. We prepare students to be academically prepared, well rounded, and disciplined. Additionally, we demonstrate above average testing scores and offer a wide range of activities such as athletics, academic decathlon, and more.

What are the school hours?

School is in session starting at 7:30am daily. The school ends at 3:00pm Monday through Thursday, and at 12:30pm on Friday (to allow for faculty and staff development meetings.) Supervision in the morning begins at 7:30am and there is an afterschool Day Care program that runs daily until 6:00pm for an additional fee.

What is the school dress code or uniform?

All students are required to wear a formal uniform on Mass days (typically Fridays), PE uniforms in assigned PE days, and regular uniform on all other days. Physical Education and sports uniforms are purchased through the school and all other items can be purchased through the uniform company, School Uniformity, in Montebello. There is also a uniform exchange program where you may be able to receive a previously worn uniform at no cost.
